

How to get your paper published and the perfect reviewer

Any manuscript can be published but not in any journal. To get your paper published starts long before you may expect.

The perfect reviewer has a certain expertise within a field and is capable of reporting honest and straightforward.

Both topics will be discussed during the session.

Søren Overgaard is Editor in Chief of Acta Orthopaedica and Professor at Copenhagen University Hospital, Bispebjerg. He has published more than 180 peer reviewed papers and is past scientific chair of EFFORT.
